

Mordialloc-Braeside Junior Football Club Inc

Member Protection Policy

As defined and published in the SMJFL By-Laws and AFL, as amended from time to time, by the AFL, SMJFL or MBJFC.

SMJFL & MBJFC Codes of Conduct

Mordialloc-Braeside Junior Football Club has the following codes of conduct in place.

Umpires

Member club volunteer umpires are required to sign the SMJFL Umpire Code of Conduct and participate in SMJFL approved umpire training prior to the commencement of each playing season.

Coaches

Coaches are required to sign the AFL Code of Conduct as part of their AFL accreditation requirement. All coaches must be accredited with the AFL to coach in the SMJFL. In addition to this, MBJFC has a Coaches Code of Conduct, which can be found at www.mbjfc.net

Parents and Spectators

MBJFC has a Parents and Spectators Code of Conduct, which can be found at www.mbjfc.net

Players

MBJFC has a Players Code of Conduct, which can be found at www.mbjfc.net and is made available upon registration with the club.

Team Officials

MBJFC has a Team Officials Code of Conduct, which can be found at www.mbjfc.net

Committee

MBJFC has a Committee Code of Conduct, which can be found at www.mbjfc.net

A breach of any items listed in any of the Codes of Conduct will be handled by the Disciplinary Sub-Committee, whose TOR can be found at www.mbjfc.net

Updated November 2018